

Environmental and Permitting Services

PTP offers an array of environmental services including:

- | | |
|---------------------------------------|---|
| NEPA Complianace | Regulatory Permitting and Coordination |
| Categorical Exclusions | Wetland Delineation |
| Environmental Assessments | Wetland Mitigation Strategies |
| Environmental Impact Statements | Biological Studies |
| Environmental Site Assessments | Groundwater Studies |
| Sampling and Testing | Stormwater Design, Permitting, Inspection |
| Site Remediation | Floodplain Mitigation and Permittin |
| Environmental Engineering | Stormwater Design |
| Coordination with Regulatory Agencies | Consultation with Federally Recognized Tribes |

Key Personnel

PTP is staffed with professional personnel in several specialties including licensed professional geoscientists, environmental design engineers, certified SWPPP Compliance Inspectors, certified SWPPP Preparers.

Environmental Expertise

PTP has extensive experience in many facets of environmental work including stormwater design, planning, and inspection; asbestos testing; endangered species monitoring and protections; wetlands delineations, mitigation and biodiversity; maintenance and monitoring; sampling site plans; GIS/GPS experience; site assessments and testing; wellhead protection areas for public water systems; geotechnical evaluations; Phase I records and onsite investigations for sources of potential contamination, delineation of protection areas; archaeological data received permitting and FONSI documentation.

Relevant Experience

Recent projects include three major roadway expansions for Titus County and an addition to a State Loop in Val Verde County, Texas that included demolition of asbestos structures, removal of underground tanks requiring groundwater testing, stormwater system design and planning, wetland mitigation including streams archaeological site protection, endangered species monitoring, environmental assessment, permitting, and administrative plan and project submittals.

PTP is a professional engineering and consulting firm organized to plan, design, and deliver transportation and infrastructure projects in the Texas region. Our goal is to assist cities, counties, public agencies, and private sector developers meet the mobility and development needs of their communities. With offices throughout the state, PTP has the resources to undertake projects in any Texas location and the expertise to deliver those projects on time and on budget.

